Freedom of Information in the Genetically Modified Age

Lack of transparency might be the worst problem of genetically modified foods

"Everyone has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers."
- Article 19, Universal Declaration of Human Rights

"Everyone has a right to information about how their food is produced."
- Percy Schmeiser, Farmer

The Light Millennium is devoting an issue to two crucial interconnected themes:

- 1) the understanding of genetically modified foods in light of the United Nations' Post-2015 Sustainable Millennium Development Goals.
- 2) the understanding of genetically modified foods in light of the United Nations' sixty-six year old call for freedom of expression and freedom of information, from its 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights, Article #19.

To be published by the end of June 2014, please send us your works by June 15, 2014.

Work will continue to be reviewed and published throughout the summer, including the first week of September, with a final deadline of September 8, 2014.

Send your submissions to: INFO@lightmillennium.org

Content Coordinator for Issue 30 is Julie Mardin
