

SETA

WASHINGTON DC

FOUNDATION FOR POLITICAL, ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL RESEARCH

The Light Millennium and the SETA Foundation of Washington, D.C. are proud to jointly present a book launching event with Stephen KINZER for his upcoming book entitled:

RESET

IRAN, TURKEY, AND
AMERICA'S FUTURE

With
STEPHEN KINZER

Award-winning foreign correspondent and a master storyteller; The New York Times bureau chief in Turkey (1996-2000), Germany, and Nicaragua, and Professor at the Boston University

SAVE THE DATE For: Tuesday, June 15, 2010

VENUE: SETA Foundation at Washington D.C.

1025 Connecticut Avenue, NW, Suite #1106

Washington, D.C. 20036

TIME: 12:00 to 2:00PM

What can the United States do to realize its dream of a peaceful, democratic Middle East? Award-winning foreign correspondent Stephen Kinzer offers new perspectives in his paradigm-shifting book, "RESET: Iran, Turkey, and America's Future". Kinzer argues that Iran and Turkey will continue to be America's two logical partners in the region in the twenty-first century.

- Light lunch will be served. Free and open to the public.
- RSVP will required by June 14th, 2010

For more information about the upcoming program, please e-mail:
Hailey Cook, Program Manager, SETA-DC hcook@setadc.org
www.setadc.org

or

Bircan Ünver, The Light Millennium -
contact@lightmillennium.org <http://www.lightmillennium.org>

The Book will be available during the program.

Publisher: Times Book - will be released on June 8, 2010.